WEEK TWENTY-SEVEN

The Real Promised Land

Then Moses replied, "If you aren't going with us, please don't make us leave this place..."

Exodus 33:15

You're hanging out with your friends. One of them shows you something on their phone that you know isn't appropriate. Sure, you're curious...

But should you look? What would God want you to do?

As you get older, you get to make more decisions, including where to be, what to watch, and who to hang out with. Some of these choices are really difficult to make, and all of your choices matter.

God's people, the Israelites, also had a choice, but they chose poorly. God had freed them from slavery, and they were headed to a wonderful promised land. But while Moses, their leader, was away, the people had a party and worshipped another god—a golden statue they had made. They betrayed the God who faithfully loved them.

God was angry and told Moses he wouldn't go with them anymore. But Moses begged God to forgive them. He didn't want to move forward on their journey without God. For Moses, God's presence was the real promised land—more important than anything else!

Are there choices you've made that seem good, but you know God doesn't like? Trust the God who faithfully loves you. Choose to stay with him, and he will reward you.

You can trust the God who faithfully loves you.
Choose to stay with him.

WEEK TWENTY-EIGHT

From the Beginning

God had already planned and decided that Jesus would be handed over to you. So you took him and had evil men put him to death on a cross. But God set him free from death and raised him to life. Death could not hold him in its power.

Acts 2:23–24

Here's the plan: be nice to everyone; get good grades; do your chores; don't fight with your brother too much; go to church; and do something extra for someone once in a while. That's about it, right? Just keep yourself squared away and hopefully that's good enough for God.

That's probably what Peter thought until he met Jesus. Peter even gave up his job as a fisherman to follow Jesus. He seemed to do all the right things!

But, when his faithfulness was most important, Peter failed. When Jesus was facing harsh treatment and death, Peter pretended not to know him. He ran away to save himself.

However, that wasn't the end of the story. Jesus died and came back to life; and he forgave Peter. He prepared Peter, who acted cowardly and failed, as a leader of the newly started church.

God's plan was bigger than Peter's weaknesses. God knew before Adam and Eve's first sin that he would send Jesus to die for our sins and save us. He knows we are weak. He knows we will mess up and need forgiveness. And only he can help us do what's right in his eyes. He will forgive us when we repent of our wrongs.

God helps us do what's right and forgives us when we repent of our wrongs.

We are all tempted to make excuses for sins. But instead of making an excuse, pray! Ask Jesus to help you do what's right and to forgive you for the wrongs you have done. He will do it! Below is a sample prayer to help you know what to say.

Dear Jesus,

I'm sorry for what I did. It was not right. Forgive me and help me do what is right next time. Thank you for loving me even when I sin.

WEEK TWENTY-NINE

Changing Everything

Create pure thoughts in me and make me faithful again.

Psalm 51:10

Knives flashing in the dark. Cursing. Fights. Hatred because of the gang he belonged to. Nicky Cruz's life as a New York City street gang member was full of all these things.

As long as he could remember, Nicky was surrounded by violence. During his childhood in Puerto Rico, his parents abused him, practiced witchcraft, and called him a son of Satan. When he moved to New York, he decided to be the toughest on the streets.

A pastor started talking to Nicky about Jesus's love, but he didn't like it. He didn't have the courage to admit he was wrong and change his life. Instead, Nicky beat, mocked, and avoided the man. But with death all around him, he began to realize he had to change. He listened to the brave pastor who kept talking to him until one night he prayed.

Nicky knew he needed a completely new life. He needed a new heart with new desires, thoughts, and feelings. He asked Jesus to forgive him and take over his life. And Jesus did! Nicky's nightmares stopped. Joy replaced hatred. Telling people about Jesus became his new passion!

If Jesus could do it for Nicky, he can do it for you and the people you care about. Pray and ask him to help you change today.

Jesus changed Nicky's desires, thoughts, and feelings. He can do the same for you.

WEEK THIRTY

The Rucksack Exchange

Christ never sinned! But God treated him as a sinner, so Christ could make us acceptable to God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

Imagine having a rucksack strapped on and everything you do wrong adds another 10 pounds to your back. Did you bite as a little kid? Add another stone. Steal crayons in elementary school? More weight. Talk back to your parent? Even more weight added.

Even one sin is more weight than you can carry, but an entire life of sin? Crushing! There's absolutely no way you can get out from under that!

Then Jesus comes along, and he has nothing on his back! He never selfishly grabbed the biggest cookie. Never said a mean thing to his brothers. Never tried to hide something from his parents. Jesus lived a perfect life.

That may be hard for you to imagine. It's in our human nature to be selfish, proud, unloving. It's impossible to be perfect. But Jesus made a way for us to be forgiven, which is what allows us to have a relationship with him and a future life in heaven.

As sinful people we could never be that way on our own. But Jesus took the blame for us when he died for our sins. He picked up our rucksack of sin, so we can be free from that burden.

So, hand over that pack. Tell Jesus you are sorry for your sins and thank him for carrying it. He will show you how to live like him.

Jesus picked up our rucksack of sin, so we can be free from that burden.

Rahab

WEEK THIRTY-ONE

But Everyone Else Is

I know that the Lord has given Israel this land. Everyone shakes with fear because of you. We know that the Lord your God rules heaven and earth, and we've lost our courage and our will to fight.

Joshua 2:9, 11

We all face moments when we have to make life-changing decisions—some big, some small. For Rahab, it was a life or death decision.

In this Bible story, God's people, the Israelites, were invading the land God had promised to give them to live in safety. With God's help, the wicked people in the cities were to be cleared out. When the Israelite spies ended up in Rahab's house, she had to decide: should she go against her people, take God's side, and help them? Would these invaders and their God even accept her? She hadn't exactly lived a sin-free life. Still, she knew that taking their side was her only hope. She hid the men, then helped them escape through her window.

With God's help, the Israelites destroyed the city, but as the spies had promised, they saved Rahab and her family. She put her full trust in the Lord, and she was accepted into the Israelite community. God gave her a new life. She even became a great-great-grandmother to Jesus!

When you are surrounded by people going against God, the best decision is to be brave like Rahab and choose wisely. God rewards those who follow him.

Choosing to be on God's side is always the best decision.

Paul

WEEK THIRTY-TWO

The Great and the Awful

I have died, but Christ lives in me. And I now live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave his life for me.

Galatians 2:20

Paul did great things. And he did awful things.

As a highly religious Jew in the first century, he had done all the right things in people's eyes. He seemed completely devoted to God. When he thought people were going against God by following Jesus, he hunted them down and put them in prison, or worse.

But Jesus stopped Paul in his tracks. He showed Paul that he was really God's Son, and Paul was hurting his people.

How could Paul make that up to God? He couldn't. Paul learned there was nothing he could do—good or bad—that would impress God. Instead, Paul needed to ask for forgiveness and accept Jesus as the new commander of his life. His old life and his old set of rules needed to go away. He needed a real change in his heart! Only his new life in Christ mattered.

Are you trying to get to God by doing everything you think is right? Jesus wants you to have faith in him, not in yourself. He wants to lead your life. He wants you to say goodbye to your old life and begin a new life with him! All you have to do is accept the new life Jesus offers.

An Attitude Adjustment

...and you gave me a new song, a song of praise to you. Many will see this, and they will honor and trust you, the Lord God.

Psalm 40:3

Stubborn and hot tempered, Betty Olsen just couldn't seem to get it right. She was always angry, and it often boiled over. Where did all her anger come from? She was sent far away to another country for school because her parents were missionaries. Then her mom died. Later, Betty resented that her dad remarried.

Though Betty wanted to serve God, and even be a missionary, she couldn't seem to get over her anger. But then, a pastor started to counsel her. Slowly, Betty gave God total control of her life and God helped her to stop being angry. She changed her tune and had an attitude adjustment. God has the power to change willing hearts!

Betty was sent to work at a Vietnamese hospital in 1964. When Betty and other missionaries were captured and placed in terrible conditions, Betty stayed strong and helped others. When the guards threatened to shoot them, Betty stubbornly told them only God would decide when they die. Confused, they lowered their guns.

Sadly, she died while in captivity. Still, the other missionaries remembered her kindness to everyone. That's the kind of change only God can make in someone's life!

WEEK THIRTY-FOUR

God's Volunteer Sheep

No one takes my life from me. I give it up willingly! I have the power to give it up and the power to receive it back again, just as my Father commanded me to do.

John 10:18

In chapter 10 of John's Gospel, Jesus talks about his people—the ones who know, understand, and follow him. He compares the people to sheep, and Jesus is the good shepherd who takes care of his sheep and even lays down his life for them.

In the Military we often joke about being “volun-told” to do something—we are told we must volunteer. But God sent his Son Jesus to die for our sins, and Jesus came to earth willingly. No one made him volunteer.

Why did Jesus choose to die for you? Because he loves his sheep! He knew if he didn't, we would die as guilty people, forever separated from a holy God. Jesus couldn't let that happen.

Are you willing to follow the good shepherd, Jesus, who died for you? You will not be “volun-told” by God to be part of his flock. He lets you decide. To be one of his sheep, we must ask for forgiveness for what we've done wrong and give him control of our life. That is the best decision we could ever make.

Let the good shepherd, Jesus, take care of you and watch over you. Give him your life today and become his sheep forever!

Jesus knew if he didn't die for us, we would stay separated from God.

WEEK THIRTY-FIVE

God's Hide-and-Seek

In that city of Nineveh there are more than 120,000 people who cannot tell right from wrong, and many cattle are also there. Don't you think I should be concerned about that big city?

Jonah 4:11

Have you ever wondered why we need to care about foolish people? After all, they made poor choices and should suffer the consequences. Why do we need to show them God's love?

Jonah was one of God's prophets, and God sent him to preach to his enemies—the Ninevites. Jonah didn't want to give them God's message. He wanted them to be punished for the bad things they did.. He certainly didn't want God to forgive them. So, Jonah ran the opposite way to a boat heading far away from Nineveh. God sent a storm that terrified the sailors. Jonah decided it would be better to die so he told them to throw him overboard. But God caused a large fish to swallow him. Once Jonah was released from the fish, he repented and preached to the Ninevites, who changed their ways.

Even then, Jonah was still upset that this all seemed unfair. Why did God care so much about such foolish people? God spoke to Jonah again, trying to get him to understand his concern for all people, including the Ninevites.. The book closes with this hanging question, "Don't you think I should be concerned?"

Whether we are looking for God or trying to run, God continues to have compassion for us and wants us to repent. So, what do you need to release to God today?

Whether we are looking for God or trying to run, he continues to have compassion.

Woman at the Well

WEEK THIRTY-SIX

When Others Judge

“But no one who drinks the water I give will ever be thirsty again. The water I give will become in that person a flowing fountain that gives eternal life.”

John 4:14

Some people are going to think negative things about you. Some will never forgive. Some will cut you off and think they are better than you.

But Jesus won't turn away from you. The only perfect person to ever live loves you so much. And because of that love, he wants to help you become more like him, too!

In today's story, Jesus met a woman at a well. Her multiple marriages had ended, and she was living with a man who was not her husband. The people of the town treated her as an outcast because of the bad choices she had made. She was getting water from the well when no one else would be around. And as soon as Jesus spoke to her, she started to argue with him. She couldn't figure out why he would speak to a person like her—a sinner.

Jesus stayed patient. The forgiveness he offered could free her from sin and heal the relationship between her and God so she could spend eternity with God. With Jesus's help, she could stop sinning and become more like Jesus.

You, too, can have what Jesus gave the woman at the well. You can receive his forgiveness and eternal life! He freely gives this to those who come to him and ask. Will you ask him today?

Jesus's forgiveness brings life and hope for eternal life with him!

WEEK THIRTY-SEVEN

When Evil Strikes

"This punishment is too hard!" Cain said. "You're making me leave my home and live far from you. I will have to wander about without a home, and just anyone could kill me." "No!" the Lord answered. "Anyone who kills you will be punished seven times worse than I am punishing you." So the Lord put a mark on Cain to warn everyone not to kill him.

Genesis 4:13–15

Our Military members sometimes experience things that are so evil, they get wounded in their bodies and in their hearts. Sometimes they are left with crushing post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

This isn't fair, we cry. And it isn't. It isn't right. And we often get frustrated when there's nothing we can do to make it right or even get revenge. But the Bible tells us that God will bring justice. Someday, all evil will be punished.

The problem of evil goes back to the beginning. In Genesis, we find the story of the first murder—brother on brother. Cain, the son of Adam and Eve, murders his brother Abel without regret. So why are we focusing on Cain this week, a murderer? Aren't we supposed to be learning about brave warriors?

We can still learn a lot from Cain. After what he did, God punished him. Cain was a farmer, but God sends him away from his land, never to farm again. But even in the punishment, the Lord shows mercy and concern for Cain and keeps him safe.

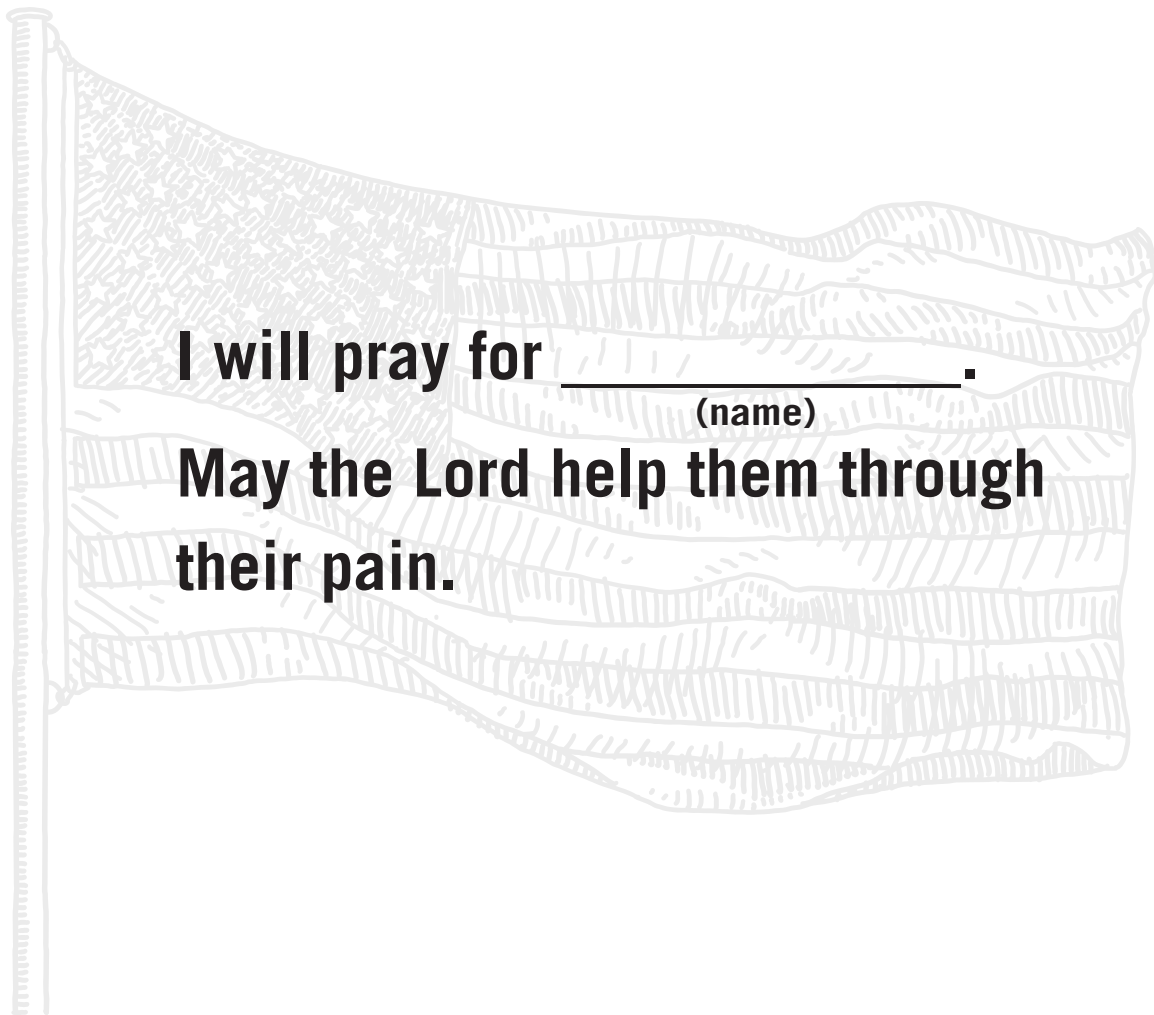

God wants us to love one another, not hurt each other. And unlike Cain, we should be sorry when we do wrong. God forgives those who repent. And when we get hurt, or our warriors do, the Lord helps us heal and forgive those who hurt us.

Evil strikes. But the Lord helps the wounded.
One day, he will make everything right.

Jesus & Peter

WEEK THIRTY-EIGHT

Right at Home

Christ died once for our sins. An innocent person died for those who are guilty. Christ did this to bring you to God, when his body was put to death and his spirit was made alive.

1 Peter 3:18

Where do you feel most at home? As a Military kid who has probably lived in several places, that might be hard to answer. It may be some place far from where you are now. Or perhaps it isn't a place. Maybe it's when you are with a special person.

There's a deep part of us, our soul, that will only be at home when we are right with God. If we "move away" by rejecting him or rebelling by doing sinful things, our soul will be lost, alone, unsafe.

Peter experienced that. He was confident Jesus showed the way to God. Even when others walked away because Jesus's teachings were hard, Peter said, "Where else could we go?" Yet Peter also wandered away. He denied knowing Jesus, right before Jesus died. Peter knew what it was like to be lost without Jesus.

So when Peter wrote letters to God's people, he explained what Jesus really did by dying: he opened the door to bring us back into friendship with God. Jesus took our sins, forgave us, and made a way for our souls to be saved—to be at home with God.

Peter encourages us to accept Jesus's forgiveness so our souls can come home to be with God forever. Will you choose to find your home with Jesus today?

Jesus brings us home. He forgives us.
He brings us into friendship with God.

In Japan in 2011, Suika, a black cat, was separated from her owners during a tsunami.

They searched for months for her but couldn't find her.

Three years later, hikers found Suika in the woods and reunited her with her family.

WEEK THIRTY-NINE

How to Become Brave

The angel appeared and spoke to Gideon, "The LORD is helping you, and you are a strong warrior."

Judges 6:12

You have to be brave when your parent deploys. You have to be brave to start a new school and make new friends. But how are you supposed to do it?

In the Bible, Gideon's country was under attack, and he was in hiding. That's not particularly brave! Then an angel appeared and called him a strong warrior. Gideon didn't believe it. He even argued with the angel.

What Gideon didn't understand was the first part of the angel's message—that the Lord was helping him. How could that be when things were so terrible? But when the angel proved his power and the Lord commanded Gideon to fight, he finally believed and obeyed. He went on to win important battles and save his country.

When Gideon put his life into God's hands, the Lord made him brave, bold, and strong. On his own, he was a coward. But when he trusted God, God used him in a mighty way.

You don't have to feel brave to be brave. You don't have to find strength within yourself to fight your battles. Instead, remind yourself that God is with you. Give God control over your life and do what he tells you. Watch him make you brave!

You don't have to feel brave to be brave.
God will be your strength!
