

Scripture Reading

Psalm 119:105–112 (Nun)

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp

that gives light

wherever I walk.

¹⁰⁶ Your laws are fair,
and I have given my word
to respect them all.

¹⁰⁷ I am in terrible pain!

Save me, LORD,
as you have promised.

¹⁰⁸ Accept my offerings of praise

and teach me your laws.

¹⁰⁹ I never forget your

teachings,
although my life is always
in danger.

¹¹⁰ Some merciless people
are trying to trap me,
but I never turn my back
on your teachings.

¹¹¹ They will always be
my most prized possession
and my source of joy.

¹¹² I have made up my mind
to obey your laws forever,
no matter what.

Light Up the Summer Bingo

Each child should pick a game board, and either a parent or teen lead should select a remaining board to facilitate the summer game. Read one verse as a family each day of the summer from left to right on the chosen remaining board. After each verse is read, using a marker, child participants should star the space on their game board with the corresponding Scripture reference. The first child to complete a full row, wins. Keep the challenge going each day of the summer until the game boards are completely filled and God's Word lights up your summer.

Let God Light It Up

Imagine being outside playing tag late on a summer night. The moon and fireflies can only help you see so far, so it’s nearly impossible to tag your friends. You use a strong flashlight, not only to guide your steps, but to find your friends and win the game.

Psalm 119 tells us that God’s Word is like the strongest flashlight. It helps you walk forward with confidence and also stay on the right path and win the prize.

How could words on paper have so much light? Psalm 119 is the longest chapter in the whole Bible. It is written as a poem that celebrates God’s Word and God’s teachings. There are 22 stanzas in this poem, and the lines in each section start with a different letter of the Hebrew alphabet. Verses 105–112 all start with the letter “Nun.” Our poet seems to be surrounded by darkness and danger. He can’t see his next step without God’s Word. But God’s love letter to us has power over darkness, and it can be our source of joy and most prized possession, too (verse 111).

Read the rest of Psalm 119 as a family this week, one stanza at a time. And let his love letter light up your life.
